Verse 1a

If I had a thousand wishes for a future and a dream, couldn't touch the edge of heaven with all my imaginings.

Verse 1b

All my puddles would be oceans, and my seed would be a tree, and my hill would be a mountain and my God would be with me.

Chorus 1

Much more than gold is the love of Jesus,
more than gold His strength and grace,
more than all the riches of this earth
when I see him face to face.

Chorus 2

Much more than gold is the blood of Jesus,
more than gold His strength and grace,
more than all the riches of this earth
when I see him face to face.

Verse 2a

There are times I'm close to you Lord, and it's at those times I'm free, and my eyes turn to this world and I am brought down to my knees.

Verse 2b

Satan has His eye upon me, and he bids me to his side, so I need you to remind me of the reason Jesus died.

Verse 3a

If I saw the land of heaven, if I felt the hand of God, if I heard the band of angels as they sing and they applaud.

Verse 3b

When I face with the decision
To do battle with the wrong,
As I start to fight with all my might,
They all break out in song
